

1. Two of the pioneering hoteliers in the late 19th century were:
c. César Ritz and Auguste Escoffier
2. Ownership and management of hotels can be according to which models?
d. All of the above
3. Classification of hotels is based on:
a. Type of property, facilities, amenities
4. Based on the experience of previous years, the demand for hotel beds at a destination can be calculated with which formula?
d.
number of tourists x percentage of tourists staying at hotels x average length of stay 365 x average number of persons/room
5. The accessible tourism market comprises of:
d. Anybody needing better access

