

1. Which of the following is a characteristic of freighter travel?
d. There is a maximum of 12 passengers allowed on board of a freighter
2. Which of the following are major threats for European ferry companies?
a. The European Trade Zone, bridges, tunnels
3. Cruise ships increased in popularity because:
d. All of the above
4. River cruises are popular, because:
b. They stop at many ports, and offer continuous scenery
5. The total annual number of cruise ship passengers worldwide is estimated at:
b. Approximately 20 million
6. The Hurtigruten (Coastal Express) is a mail and supply service that connects a large number of small communities and islands in:
a. Norway
7. Repositioning cruises:
d. Offer one-way journeys when a vessel is relocated from one cruise region to another
8. The cruise industry in the Caribbean is:
b. The world's most popular cruise region
9. The supply side of the cruise industry is characterized by:
b. An oligopolistic structure
10. Over the past two to three decades, the cruise industry has:
b. Experienced rapid growth rates

