

CABI Asia-Pacific Regional Consultation

Session 4: Conclusions and Next Steps

Vote of Thanks: for active participation and valuable insights

What happens next?

CABI staff will answer the questions we were not able to get to after this meeting

CABI will send a link to a very short – 4 question evaluation – so that we can improve our engagement

The consultation process is an ongoing dialogue & will be continued through Quarterly Briefings (28 July and 19 Oct.), Review Conference & other bilateral meetings

Session 4: Conclusions and Next Steps

The outcomes from this Regional Consultation will:

- be consolidated with those from other two forthcoming regional consultations
- influence the further development of CABI's Medium Term Strategy 2023-25 (MTS)
- be used to identify and implement agreed joint initiatives with MCs and other stakeholders
- be fed into the CABI Review Conference 2022

Draft MTS will be reviewed at the Review Conference, and its final approval be sought before or at the next Executive Council meeting (tentatively scheduled for 2nd March 2023)

Review Conference 2022

The 2022 Review Conference will take place in the UK on 27th and 28th September 2022 at the Oxford Thames hotel – please save the dates in your calendar!

We will be sending invites after the Regional Consultations and look forward to welcoming member country representatives and other stakeholders to the conference.
