

MENU of Resources on Submitting for Publication

CABI Video Tutorials

Title: Understanding ORCID IDs

Description: This CABI recorded webinar is about persistent identifiers for authors called ORCID IDs and is specifically geared to researchers who are not familiar with these IDs or have not yet registered for one. The presentation includes information on what an ORCID ID is and why researchers need to have these identifiers to connect with evolving tools of e-science communication. Links to specific tutorial explaining how to register and get an ORCID ID

~Length 22 minutes
URL Click here

Title: Understanding Authorship

Description: This CABI recorded webinar reviews current definitions of authorship, and their related roles and their responsibilities. Includes information about journal requirements when submitting a manuscript to a journal.

~ Length 49 minutes
URL Click here

Title: Selecting a Journal

Description: This CABI recorded webinar begins with a discussion of impact factors and then reviews differences among journals including editorial structures, aims and scopes, requirements, and other variations. Provides concrete tools and tips and a summarized checklist to guide journal selection.

~Length 31 minutes
URL Click here

Title: Preparing your Manuscript for Submission

Description: This CABI recorded webinar reviews in detail how to prepare manuscripts and related materials so that the submission process will go smoothly and lead to rapid initial review by journal staff and editors. A detailed checklist is provided.

~Length 36 minutes
URL Click here

Title: Writing Effective Cover Letters

Description: This CABI recorded webinar reviews how to write an effective cover letter beginning with the importance of understanding differences among journals and editorial boards and who reads cover letters. Specific guidance is given on the ideal length and structure of length of a cover letter, and what information should and should not be included. The presentation also includes a quick review of top reasons manuscripts are rejected and provides additional resources on improving written English

~ Length 48 minutes
URL Click here